UF CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES BY-LAWS

PREAMBLE
MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Center for Latin American Studies is to advance knowledge about Latin America and the Caribbean and its peoples throughout the Hemisphere, and to enhance the scope and quality of research, teaching, and outreach in Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies at the University of Florida.

ARTICLE 1
GOVERNANCE OF THE CENTER

These by-laws establish the general principles that shall guide the governance of the Center for Latin American Studies. These by-laws are governed by and subordinate to the University Constitution, the policies and directives of the Florida Board of Governors and the University of Florida Board of Trustees, and applicable provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, hereinafter called “University Policy.” Operating within the context and the provisions of these by-laws, governance shall be shared between the administration of the Center and the faculty as represented in the Faculty Advisory Council.

ARTICLE 2
THE FACULTY

Section 1. Membership of the Faculty

A. The faculty of the Center for Latin American Studies (hereinafter LAS faculty) shall consist of assistant professors, associate professors, professors, and others in tenured and tenure accruing ranks; and lecturers, senior lecturers, master lecturers, assistants-in, associates-in and scientists and scholars in non-tenure accruing ranks; and other members of the faculty as defined in the University Constitution, appointed in any campus unit, who devote at least 25 percent of their research, teaching and/or service to the study of Latin America and the Caribbean and/or Latinos in the United States, and who hold affiliate status or academic appointments in the Center.

B. LAS faculty members are distinguished as being in either the Affiliate faculty or the Center-based faculty. Affiliate faculty members are those whose academic appointments reside entirely in other campus units. Center-based faculty members are those whose academic appointments are either fully (100%) or partially in the Center, referred to as joint appointments.
C. The LAS faculty or the Center Director may recommend individuals for appointment as affiliate faculty members. They may also recommend individuals for appointments as adjunct, provisional, courtesy, and visiting faculty members. The rights and privileges of these latter appointments shall be specified at the time of appointment, but normally will not include participation in Center governance.

Section 2. Rights and Responsibilities of the Faculty

A. Faculty rights:
   i. The LAS faculty has a right to assemble to discuss matters of concern to the faculty.
   ii. Faculty have the right to know the expectations of their job assignment and how they will be evaluated.
   iii. All faculty have rights through shared governance to discuss issues and concerns with the Director/Office of the Director.

B. Faculty responsibilities: The responsibilities of the LAS faculty shall include but are not limited to:
   i. Teaching, research and service as related to Latin America, the Caribbean and US Latinos.
   ii. Contributing to the mission and governance of the Center.

Section 3. Meetings of the LAS Faculty

A. One all-faculty meeting (center-based and affiliate faculty) shall be held at least once a year (which may take the form of a retreat) at which the Director shall report on progress on the Center’s Strategic Plan and other matters of interest to the LAS faculty and seek their advice.
   i. Other meetings of the LAS faculty may be called by the Center Director, the Faculty Advisory Council, or by petition of 25 LAS faculty members to discuss Center issues and provide advice to the Director.

ARTICLE 3
CENTER-BASED FACULTY

A. Participate in center governance decisions through committee membership and representation on the Faculty Advisory Committee.

B. Discuss and vote on policy recommendations proposed by LAS committees or the Center Director.

C. Serve in an advisory capacity to the director.

D. Review the Center’s Academic Program (undergraduate certificate and minor, graduate certificate, and the M.A. in Latin American Studies [MALAS] program), including proposals for new programs. Secure and administer external grants in support of the Center’s programs.

E. Have primary responsibility for staffing the core courses associated with the Center’s Academic Program, serving as advisors and specialization coordinators for the MALAS Program, and advising the Director on appointments to the Visiting Faculty, including the Bacardi Chair.

F. Nominate candidates for the Center Director search committee.

G. Provide input in the evaluation of the Center Director’s performance.

H. Meet once a month during the academic year (minutes should become available within ten days).

ARTICLE 4
THE FACULTY ADVISORY COUNCIL

Section 1. Function

The Faculty Advisory Council (FAC) serves as a forum for the mutual exchange of ideas among Center administrators, students, staff, and the faculty.

In addition, the Faculty Advisory Council shall have the responsibility to undertake the following:

A. Approval of new LAS Affiliate faculty members

B. Approval of Graduate Faculty Status of LAS Affiliate faculty members in the Center.
C. Discussion and feedback on policy recommendations developed by LAS committees.

D. Serve in an advisory capacity to the Director and LAS center-based faculty especially on matters involving affiliate faculty or programmatic changes.

Section 2. Membership of the FAC

Composition: The FAC shall be composed of voting members, and non-voting members.

A. Voting members:
   i. Four Affiliate faculty representatives shall be elected by the LAS faculty for staggered, two-year terms.
   ii. Two Affiliate faculty representatives shall be appointed by the Director in order to assure diversity and balance in faculty representation by college and rank.
   iii. Three elected representatives of the Center-based faculty for staggered, two-year terms
   iv. The Director of the Masters in Development Practice, The Director of the Tropical Conservation and Development Program, the Director of MALAS, the Director of Undergraduate Studies, and the Associate Director for Outreach.

B. Non-voting members
   i. The Center Director, the Associate Director for Academic Programs, the Director of the Latin American Collection of the University Libraries, and the Assistant/Associate Director for Administration.
   ii. The Center Staff selects a representative to serve for 2 years.
   iii. All Center students elect one representative to serve for one year. Center students include students enrolled in MALAS, MDP, MALAS/JD, MALAS Certificate, and the TCD Certificate.

C. The FAC shall be chaired by the Center Director, and in their absence by the Associate Director of Academic Programs.

Section 3. FAC Meetings

A. Two meetings shall be held during each semester of the academic year. Only members of the FAC have access to the floor during meetings, except when permission has been granted by consent of the Council. A majority of the voting members shall constitute a quorum.
B. Minutes of FAC meetings will be distributed to all the LAS faculty within 10 days following the meeting.

ARTICLE 5
ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE OF THE CENTER

Section 1. The Center Director

The Director is the chief academic and administrative officer of the Center, who shall at the same time hold academic rank in the Center and/or another academic unit. The Director is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the Provost and is expected to provide leadership and overall administration in academic matters, financial planning, and policy and routine operations of the Center. The Director is responsible to the Provost for the administration of the Center and is responsible to the faculty for the making and execution of Center policy. The Director shall have primary delegated authority and decision-making responsibility for such activities as hiring and evaluating faculty members and staff and for administering the Center’s fiscal and physical/material resources. In exercising decision-making responsibilities, the Director is expected to seek and consider faculty input and provide feedback and rationale about the final decision.

The primary responsibilities of the Director are:

A. Preparing, in collaboration with the Center-based faculty and the FAC, and in consultation with the Provost, a strategic plan for adoption by the LAS faculty. Following adoption, the Director shall have the responsibility of implementing the plan. Amendments, changes or modifications to an adopted strategic plan may be proposed by the Director or the FAC. The strategic plan shall be evaluated by the FAC in collaboration with the Director and revisions proposed to the LAS faculty at least every five years following its adoption.

B. Maintaining up-to-date data on progress relevant to the goals and objectives of the strategic plan, and the budget.

C. Conducting Center elections as required by these By-laws.

D. Initiating searches for Center-based faculty and staff appointments.

E. Calling periodic meetings of the Center-based faculty to review the research and graduate training programs and other programmatic and administrative activities of the Center.

F. Appointing the chairs and members of the Center’s Standing Committees and other committees and Task Forces as required.

G. Supervising, evaluating, and assigning duties to Center-based faculty members.
Section 2. Selection of the Center Director

The Center Director shall be appointed by the Provost following a duly constituted search according to University policy, procedures and regulations, and serve at the pleasure of the Provost.

Section 3. Other Administrative Officers

As the Provost’s designee, the Center Director shall appoint the other administrative officers of the Center, including the Associate and Assistant Directors and other professional staff. Together with the Director these officers would lead the different activities of the Center.

A. In the Director’s absence, the Associate Director for Academic Programs assumes the role of Acting Director. If an anticipated absence of the Director is to be prolonged (one semester or longer), the FAC will recommend to the Provost suitable candidates for Acting Director among the tenured faculty.

B. The Associate Director for Academic Programs shall work collaboratively with the Directors of MDP, MALAS and TCD and the Undergraduate Coordinator (UC) to assure coordination of the Center’s graduate and undergraduate programs, is an ex-officio member of the FAC, and staffs and is a voting member of the MALAS Admissions and Financial Aid Committee. The Associate Director plans and oversees the Center’s course offerings, works on curriculum planning and development, supports LAS specializations; and co-coordinates competitions and events serving multiple academic programs. The Associate Director also supports LAS faculty with challenges related to teaching and advising; and carries out other job duties as described in the position description.

C. The Associate Director for Outreach and Business Programs builds networks with K-12 schools and state colleges in order to share educational resources and integrate LAS content across the curriculum. She/he assists with USDOE Title VI project ideas and budget management for outreach activities. She/he manages activities of the LABE program, recruits and mentors LABE students, partners with alumni, the College of Business and other pertinent units on campus.

D. The Undergraduate Coordinator (UC) is the primary advisor for students pursuing a minor or LAS certificate and monitors student progress. The UC shall support the Center’s undergraduate program and aim to strengthen it, and also represent the Center at relevant college meetings dealing with undergraduate affairs and curriculum.

E. The Assistant/Associate Director for Administration shall manage the day-to-day activities of the Center; provide advice to the Director on Center affairs; is an ex-officio member of the FAC; and may serve as liaison to other Center committees, as appointed by the Director. The Assistant/Associate Director for Administration may be assigned specific tasks (e.g., grant management, financial aid, etc.) to assist the Director in addition to his/her regular job duties as described in the position description.

F. The Director of the MALAS is appointed by the Center’s director for a period of three years. She/he is in charge of administering the MALAS program and the Graduate Certificate in Latin American Studies.

G. The Director of the MDP works under the supervision of the Director of the Center for Latin American Studies and the Director of the Center for African Studies. She/he is in charge of administering the MDP program and the Graduate Certificate in Sustainable Development Practice. She/he also teaches up to three core courses of the MDP program, recruits students, seeks funding opportunities for them, supports students in their search for opportunities for their capstone field practicums, convenes and manages the MDP program committees, and carries out other job duties as described in the position description. The MDP Director works closely with the MDP Program Coordinator to ensure the efficient and effective management of the program. He/she also participates in committees of the Center for Latin American Studies, such as the Faculty Advisory Committee (FAC), Curriculum Committee, Development Committee and periodically takes part in faculty searches.

H. The Director of the TCD program is in charge of leading the activities of the program, including the Graduate Certificate in Tropical Conservation and Development, the Graduate Concentration in Tropical Conservation and Development Research, supervising any staff associated with the TCD Program, and working with core faculty, affiliate faculty, alumni and partners of the TCD Program. Her/his duties also include fiscal responsibility for endowments held within the TCD Program plus any grants affiliated and run through the Center for Latin American Studies associated with TCD program and activities.

ARTICLE 6

RESEARCH AND GRADUATE TRAINING PROGRAMS
A. The Research and Graduate Training Programs (R&T) of the Center are multi- and interdisciplinary programs that usually involve faculty members from more than one academic unit or College. These are normally carried out under the direction of Center-based faculty members, but may be proposed by any member of the LAS faculty.

B. R&T programs usually constitute a specialization within the MALAS program. They may also include the offering of a specialized University certificate or concentration. In the latter case, the R&T program may constitute its own advisory committee to oversee the program, including program-related grant competitions for students and the faculty.

ARTICLE 7
STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. Purpose

Service on committees in the Center is the primary means by which faculty can participate directly in the governance of the Center.

Section 2. Standing committees

The following are the Standing Committees of the Center:

A. The Awards and Scholarship Committee Centralizes information about all the awards and scholarships of the Center and staff’s specific sub-committees to oversee each award and scholarship, including the selection process.

B. The Development Committee
   Works on different strategies to bring funds from foundations, private donors and other sources to the center.

C. The Curriculum Committee
   Provides a space to deliberate on curriculum across the center.

D. The Undergraduate Committee
   Coordinates and strengthens the center's undergraduate programs and certificates.

E. The Diversity Committee
   Proposes initiatives to diversify the curriculum, the student body, the faculty and the center’s staff, and to make the center an inclusionary teaching and research space.

F. The Recruitment Committee.
Coordinates and consults on issues of recruitment for the different graduate programs offered by the center.

G. Merit Review Committee
   Is in charge of making recommendations for merit increases.

H. Administrative Committees for LAS Research and Training Programs
   Responsible for the governance and administration of major Center programs such as the TCD and MDP.

I. Ad hoc committees
   These committees may be created to advise the Director on matters such as tenure and promotion, to participate in different university initiatives, etc.

Section 3. Committee Membership:

A. The center-based faculty shall indicate preferences for the committees on which they will serve and shall be appointed by the Director. Assistant professors typically serve on one committee, tenured faculty with appointments in another department on one, and tenured faculty with appointments in the center on two.

B. The Director shall seek recommendations from the faculty regarding the chairs and membership. At least three faculty members should serve on each committee; staff people might want to serve but it is not mandatory.

C. Appointments to these committees are for two academic years.

D. Committee Chair: organizes regular meetings and reports to the Center-based faculty and the Director on committee activities.

E. If the director assigns a faculty member to do service, failure to do the assignment can have an impact on future decisions regarding promotion.

ARTICLE 8

FACULTY SEARCHES AND APPOINTMENTS

The Center participates in various types of faculty searches, including for joint appointments with other campus units and for full-time (100%) Center appointments.

Section 1. Searches for Joint Appointment
A. Searches for a tenured or tenure-accruing joint position limited to one academic discipline:
   i. The search shall be conducted by the department or school in which the faculty member shall hold academic rank and tenure. Such searches shall normally follow the procedures established by the University and the relevant department and college.
   ii. The search committee shall include at least two representatives of the Center-based tenured or tenure-accruing faculty of appropriate rank; if such proves unfeasible, the Center may be represented by an Affiliate faculty member of appropriate rank.
   iii. The Center-based faculty and members of the FAC shall be given the opportunity to meet with all short-listed candidates being considered for such joint positions.
   iv. Once the departmental search committee has made its report to the Department Chair and Center Director, the Center-based faculty and members of the FAC shall have the opportunity to discuss the search committee’s report and advise the Center Director on whom to appoint.
   v. The appointment for joint positions shall be made jointly by the Center Director and the Department Chair and respective College Dean.

B. Searches for tenured or tenure-accruing joint appointment in any one of several disciplines:
   i. The search shall be conducted by the Center and chaired by a Center-based faculty member appointed by the Director.
   ii. In consultation with the respective College Dean, each department where potential candidates would be likely to hold academic rank and tenure shall be invited to participate in the search and appoint one member to the search committee.
   iii. The Center Director may appoint an additional member of the committee from among the LAS faculty members if needed to assure appropriate balance and expertise on the search committee.
   iv. Once the search committee has screened the candidates and drawn up a list of potentially suitable candidates for the position, the relevant disciplinary departments shall be consulted prior to inviting candidates to campus.
   v. After the campus visits, the departments, following their own internal procedures, will vote on the suitability of those candidates in their disciplines. The search committee shall recommend to the Center Director only candidates approved by their respective departments.
   vi. The Center-based faculty and members of the FAC shall be given the opportunity to meet with all short-listed candidates for such joint positions.
   vii. Once the search committee has made its report to the Center Director, the Center-based faculty and members of the FAC shall have the opportunity to discuss this report and advise the Center Director on whom to appoint.
   viii. The appointment for such joint positions shall be made jointly by the Center Director and the respective Department Chair and College Dean.

Section 2. Searches for Full-time Center-based Appointments
A. Search committees for full-time Center-based appointments in non-tenure-accruing faculty positions shall usually be composed of representatives of the Center-based faculty. The Director may request the Faculty Advisory Council to nominate a representative of the Affiliate faculty to serve on such committees.

B. Search committees for full-time Center-based appointments in tenure or tenure-accruing faculty positions, with academic rank and tenure in the Center, shall be composed of representatives of the Center-based faculty and Affiliate faculty in equivalent rank or higher, with efforts to ensure equal representation of each group and appropriate disciplinary balance. The FAC will nominate the representatives of the Affiliate faculty to serve on such committees.

C. The Center-based faculty and members of the FAC will be given the opportunity to meet with all short-listed candidates for full-time Center-based appointments in tenure or tenure-accruing faculty positions.

D. Once the search committee has made its report to the Center Director, the Center-based faculty and members of the FAC will have the opportunity to discuss this report and advise the Center Director.

E. In either case A or B above, the Center Director is the sole hiring authority.

ARTICLE 9

TENURE AND PROMOTION

Section 1. Joint Appointments

Jointly-appointed tenure-track faculty members (assistant or associate professors) shall be considered for tenure and promotion in the department in which they hold academic rank.

All considerations of tenure and promotion shall be consistent with department, college and university guidelines for promotion and tenure. It is expected that the department’s evaluation of the candidate shall recognize the candidate’s performance in the Center.

The Department Chair is expected to consult with the Center Director in all aspects of the tenure and promotion process of joint appointments, including the selection of external referees. In addition, the Center Director may write a separate evaluation of the candidate’s file to provide input into the recommendation of the Department Chair, or such an evaluation may be written jointly by the Chair and Director. The Center Director will consult with the tenured faculty to get their input into tenure and promotion.
Candidates for tenure and/or promotion shall be evaluated with respect to their accomplishments in teaching, research and service.

Section 2. Full-time Appointments

In the case of full-time, tenure-track Center-based faculty members with academic rank in the Center, a tenure and promotion (T & P) committee shall be constituted of all tenured members of the Center-based faculty and the FAC holding a higher academic rank than the candidate. Should the candidate’s academic discipline not be represented on the T & P committee, the Center Director, with the advice of the FAC, may appoint one additional member from the Affiliate faculty to this committee.

Candidates for tenure and/or promotion shall be evaluated with respect to their accomplishments in teaching, research and service, including fund-raising and program development activities for the Center.

Section 3. Faculty Mentoring

An appropriate mentoring program shall be developed for all jointly appointed and full-time, tenure-accruing Center-based faculty members.

ARTICLE 10

FACULTY ASSIGNMENT REPORTS, PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS, AND MERIT PAY INCREASES

Section 1. Joint Appointments

Annual faculty assignments of those in joint appointments shall be determined jointly by the faculty member, the Center Director and their respective Department Chair. The Center Director and Department Chair shall strive to ensure that a faculty member’s service assignment is divided equally among the two units.
The Center Director shall provide an annual performance evaluation of the activities of the jointly-appointed faculty to the faculty members and their respective Department Chairs. This report, focused on the faculty members’ activities as they relate to the Center, shall serve as an input into the Department Chair’s annual evaluation of the faculty member and in recommendations for merit pay increases within the context of University regulations and guidelines. The Center Director shall also participate in the Department’s third-year review of jointly-appointed faculty members. The Director will consult with the tenured Center faculty to write a letter, and should be included in the department meeting discussing the third year review.

Section 2. Full-time Appointments

Annual faculty assignments of full-time Center-based appointments shall be determined jointly by the faculty member and the Center Director. The Center Director shall provide an annual performance evaluation to each faculty member, which shall form the basis for the allocation of merit pay increases. The Center Director shall also perform a third-year review for full-time, tenure-accruing Center-based faculty members with input from the T & P committee.

ARTICLE 11
ADOPTION

The By-Laws shall be approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the FAC and then submitted for approval to all members of the LAS faculty. A vote of the LAS faculty, which may occur in person, electronically or telephonically, shall be conducted to adopt or reject the By-Laws within two weeks after its submission to the LAS faculty. The By-Laws shall become effective if approved by at least 50% of those faculty members voting.

ARTICLE 12
REVIEW & AMENDMENTS
The Faculty Advisory Council and Center Director shall conduct a review of the By-Laws at least every five years. Amendments to the By-Laws may also be proposed by petition of 25 faculty members. Amendments shall require a two-thirds majority vote of the FAC and a majority vote of the LAS faculty. The text of proposed amendments shall be distributed to the faculty two weeks prior to such vote. Such votes may occur in person, electronically or telephonically.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Adopted by the LAS faculty on October 10, 2007.
Amended on May 4, 2012.
Amended on March, 2021
