Office for Distance Learning - UF

PROGRAM

The University of Florida Language and Culture Program in Rio de Janeiro is a 6-week FLAS-certified program offering 140 contact hours of classroom instruction in Portuguese. Designed with ACTFL standards in mind, the classes and assignments are based on the 5 "C's" of Language Learning: Communication, Culture, Communities, Comparisons and Connections. Hence, all classroom activities and assignments involve intensive language instruction in Portuguese. The program offers three levels: intermediate, advanced intermediate and advanced, plus a cultural component for all levels. Classes will be held online, and ministered by both IBEU (Instituto Brasil-Estados Unidos) staff and UF staff. IBEU is a well-known and highly regarded center for language instruction. The program includes virtual excursions, curated by experts.
