

Titicaca

---

Puma de Piedra

Questions:

1. Which is the world's highest navigable lake?
2. Between what two countries is Lake Titicaca located?
3. What was one of the fish species introduced to the lake that reduced the number of native fish to the area?
4. What did the Uro tribe do before they settled by the Tatra Marsh?
5. What island is most accessible to tourists?
6. What is one way the islanders make money?
7. What community is known as the garden of The Titicaca?
8. What language do the people of Taquile speak?
9. Why did the Spanish authorities impose the particular style of dress upon the people of Taquile?
10. In the 1540s who owned the island of Taquile?
11. What do the giant frogs of the lake eat?

12. What is the only river that flows out of Lake Titicaca?

13. Which lake does the river now deposit into?

14. The salt gathered and refined in the village of Colchani is consumed mostly by what portion of Bolivia?

15. Why do water lentils surround the basin of the lake?

Answer Key:

1. The Titicaca
2. Peru and Bolivia
3. Trout
4. Farm
5. Torani
6. Selling stuffed birds
7. Mono
8. Qetchua/language of the Incas
9. To try to wipe out any traces of the Inca culture
10. Kings Charles the fifth of Spain
11. Scallops and snails
12. Desaguadero
13. Lake Uro Uro
14. Southern Bolivia
15. The resident around it had been dumping sewage